The two posts of Upper Subordinates, have been subsequently made permanent in G.O. No. 325 of Development Department dated 24-1-49. Sanction for the remaining posts expires on 31--3--1950.

2. In addition to Telugu and Tamil editions of Grow More Food Journals, Kannada and Malayalam editions are also being published from September 1949. All the vernacular editions continue to be popular as may be seen from the figures furnished below:-

The number of copies of Grow More Food Journals printed and distributed in all the four languages- as it stands at present.

|---|---|
| 1. Padipantulu (Telugu) | 62,440 copies. |
| 2. Mezhichelvam. (Tamil) | 13,840 ,,, |

With the experience gained during last year, it is proposed to systematise the supply of journals to the subscribers through Government Press. Arrangements have already been made to publish the special annual number for this year in time in all the four languages, with a better get up. All this work requires the services of the above staff. I therefore, request that the Government may be pleased to sanction the continuance of the following staff for a period of one year from 1-4-1950. I am submitting separately proposals for retaining the staff on a permanent basis.
